

The Sacramento Ballet Dance Education Training Program is adding 2 new classes to its Spring Class schedule beginning January 4th.

The first is a Boy's Ballet Class which will be taught by Company dancer Tim Coleman. After completing an 8 week introductory class this fall, 17 boys thrilled an audience of parents and dancers with a small demonstration of what they had learned. Because of its popularity the class will continue on Tuesday evenings from 5:00 – 6:00 PM. Tuition for this class is $45.00/month.

The second new addition to the spring lineup of ballet classes is the introduction of a Creative Movement Class for 3 ½ to 5 year olds. With the addition of Elaine Hunter to the teaching staff we now have the ability to offer classes for our younger ballerinas. This class will be Saturday mornings from 9:00 – 9:45 AM. The tuition for this class is $50/month.

The Dance Education Training Program will hold an advanced Master Class with former Sacramento Ballet dancer, Annali Rose Clevenger Tuesday, December 15th from 5:00 – 6:30 PM at the studio. Annali was a Sacramento Ballet Summer Intensive favorite and the student's really enjoyed her varied and contemporary choreography. Cost is $20 and class size is limited so please pre-register by emailing marla@sacballet.org or stop by the studio front desk to sign up.
