

Community Partner Spotlight – August 2009

Sacramento Ballet forms partnership with world renowned Tiffany & Co.

Sacramento Ballet dancers and Store Director, Margaret Quattrochi, outside the new Roseville Tiffany & Co

Sacramento Ballet Dancers outside the new Tiffany & Co store with Regional Vice President Thomas Carrol, Store Director Margaret Quattrochi, and Group Vice President Edward Gerard.

(continued below)

Community Partner Spotlight – August 2009

Sacramento Ballet is proud to announce a brand new partnership with the world renowned Tiffany & Co.

On August 13, 2009 Sacramento Ballet company members participated in the opening of the new store at the Roseville Galleria. As part of the partnership, Tiffany & Co. will be providing the awards for the Inaugural Capital Choreography Competition taking place at the Crest Theatre in October.

“Tiffany & Co. has a tradition of supporting local community groups”, said vice president Tom Carroll in a news release. “The commitment we’ve shown to our heritage over the years is shared by our community partners, whom we salute for their outstanding contributions to the arts and natural world.”